WORLD SKATE CODE OF CONDUCT AND CODE OF ETHICS

I. GENERAL PART

1. SUBJECT MATTER

A. This document contains the Code of Conduct and the Code of Ethics (collectively “The Codes”) applicable to each and every World Skate Officer, member of Staff, Congress member as well as to each and every Member Federation, Athlete, Official and Representative interacting with World Skate, and to any other person, body or entity carrying out activities in the framework of World Skate.

This document further regulates the disciplinary and ethical framework applicable within World Skate, including the investigative functions of the Disciplinary Ethics and Legal Affairs Department (“DELA Department”) and the adjudicatory functions exercised by the Disciplinary and Ethics Commission in accordance with the World Skate Statutes and By-Laws.

2. SCOPE

A. These Codes apply to both everyday activities as well as to each and every competition, championship, cup and to any other event either staged or sanctioned by World Skate.

These Codes are intended to prevent and sanction conduct contrary to the principles, integrity, reputation, dignity and values of World Skate and of the sporting movement.

B. These Codes apply only to the cases described herein and shall not apply to:

- I. Anti-Doping Rule Violations;
- II. technical or sporting violations governed by specific World Skate Rules and Regulations; or

- III. civil or criminal matters falling within the jurisdiction of competent authorities or bodies.

C. The following entities and/or individuals shall comply with these Codes:

- Continental Areas;
- Member Federations;
- Athletes;
- National Federation Officials and Representatives;
- Judges;
- Referees;
- Any other International Technical Officials (ITOs);
- Members of World Skate Management;
- Members of World Skate Boards, Commissions and Departments;
- Members of World Skate Staff;
- Anyone authorized by World Skate to cooperate, collaborate or participate in World Skate activities;

3. RELATIONSHIP WITH TECHNICAL AND SPORTING RULES

A. The application of these Codes is without prejudice to the powers assigned under the applicable World Skate Technical Rulebooks, Competition Rules, Event Protocols and Anti-Doping Rules.

Judges, Referees, Technical Delegates, Technical Commissions and other competent sporting authorities may adopt technical, sporting or safety-related measures within the scope of their respective regulations and field-of-play authority, including warnings, disqualifications, expulsions from events or venues, and other competition-related measures, where provided for under the applicable World Skate Rules, Rulebooks and Regulations.

Such measures shall not necessarily constitute disciplinary sanctions under these Codes and may represent:

- competition management decisions;
- technical or sporting consequences; and/or
- safety or event-management measures.

Where appropriate, the same facts, conduct, reports or decisions may nevertheless be referred to the DELA Department for further assessment, investigation and possible disciplinary proceedings under these Codes.

4. SANCTIONS

A. The following sanctions may be imposed by the Disciplinary and Ethics Commission following disciplinary proceedings initiated upon formal indictment by the Prosecutor in accordance with the World Skate Statutes, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations.

Sanctions are divided into two groups according to the legal status of the person and/or entity concerned:

1. General Sanctions

- I. Warning (Written Notice).
- II. Fine (Amount of money to be paid to World Skate).
The amount of the fine shall be determined on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the nature and severity of the violation.
- III. Precautionary Suspension for the entire duration of the investigation.
This measure may be imposed by the Prosecutor where prima facie evidence of a violation exists and where deemed necessary to protect the integrity, safety or proper conduct of World Skate activities, events or investigations. Should the disciplinary proceedings result in the imposition of a suspension sanction, the time served under a Precautionary Suspension shall be discounted from the final sanction. In all other cases, the Disciplinary and Ethics Commission may take the precautionary suspension into account when determining the appropriate sanction, if any.

Any person and/or entity subject to a Precautionary Suspension may request a review of such measure before the Disciplinary and Ethics Commission, which may confirm, modify or lift the measure taking into account the circumstances of the case.

- IV. Suspension (Temporary suspension of rights and/or activities for up to one (1) year.
- V. Annulment of the result of one or more competitions.
- VI. Return of awards (Immediate return of cups, medals, prize money or any other prize to World Skate).
- VII. Deduction of points (Subtraction of an amount of points from World Skate rankings).
- VIII. Ban from participating in World Skate events and/or competitions for up to one year.
- IX. Ban from taking part in a specific World Skate event and/or competition.
- X. Definitive Expulsion (Removal of World Skate Membership or Status).

2. Sanctions applicable only to legal persons

- I. Take Over by World Skate of the organization of an event, in case of severe mishandling or failure in managing the event;
- II. Temporary or Permanent Receivership of a Member Federation or Continental Area (Acquisition of power by World Skate on a National Federation or Continental Area in case of severe, critical and proven mishandling).

Sanctions provided for in article 4 may be combined and also interrupted by rest periods during the sport years/seasons. Moreover, sanctions might be increased or decreased within the limits set above.

5. LEVEL OF RESPONSIBILITY

A. Sanctions shall be imposed according to the level of responsibility involving the person/s and/or entity/entities concerned: fraud, fault, involvement and attempting.

1. Definitions:

- I. Fraud: Fraud consists of an intentional violation committed with awareness of the conduct and its consequences and with the will to carry out such conduct.

Where intent and causal connection are sufficiently established, the person and/or entity concerned may be held responsible.

Fraud constitutes a form of personal and direct responsibility.

- II. Fault: Fault consists of a non-intentional violation committed through negligence, imprudence, incompetence or failure to comply with applicable World Skate rules, regulations, protocols or obligations.

There are different levels of fault according to the severity of the violation and evaluating the specific circumstances.

- III. Involvement: Involvement consists of indirect participation in a violation, including through assistance, facilitation, concealment or complicity.
- IV. Attempting: An attempt consists of conduct aimed at committing a violation which, for any reason, is not completed. Attempted violations are punishable as well, with a possible reduction of the applicable sanction/s.

In the absence of a specific sanction or clear quantification, sanctions shall be determined and applied in compliance with the principles and values inspiring the World Skate Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics, taking into account the level of responsibility, proportionality, fairness, consistency and, ultimately, equity.

6. GENERAL RULES AND APPLICATION OF SANCTIONS

A. The Prosecutor, through the DELA Department, shall be responsible for investigating alleged violations of these Codes.

Once the investigation phase has concluded, should the Prosecutor decide to proceed against the person, body or entity involved, the Prosecutor shall transmit the allegations, findings and supporting evidence to the Disciplinary and Ethics Commission, in accordance with the World Skate Charters and applicable regulations.

The Disciplinary and Ethics Commission shall decide the matter in accordance with the World Skate Charters and applicable regulations.

The Disciplinary and Ethics Commission shall determine whether a violation has been established to its comfortable satisfaction, bearing in mind the seriousness of the allegation and the consequences of the potential sanction.

Notifications, communications and procedural documents under these Codes may be transmitted electronically through any reliable means of communication, including electronic mail.

World Skate may establish an archive of final decisions for consistency, transparency and educational purposes. Similar cases shall, where possible, be treated consistently, taking into account the specific circumstances of each case.

World Skate may publish decisions adopted under these Codes, in full or in part, where deemed appropriate for transparency, consistency and educational purposes. World Skate may limit, anonymize or withhold publication where necessary to protect confidential information, minors, safeguarding interests, ongoing proceedings or other legitimate interests.

7. PRINCIPLES

A. World Skate aims to promote the highest possible ethical values at all levels among its member Federations, officers, Management and Staff members, Partners and Stakeholders, including any person and/or entity dealing with World Skate.

World Skate is committed to the Olympic Charter and its fundamental ethical principles and requires that these shall be observed by all persons and/or entities involved in World Skate activities, events and/or competitions.

In furtherance of these aims, World Skate has adopted this Code of Ethics, which is based on the principles and rules of the IOC Code of Ethics and the general principles of good governance in sport.

All World Skate office holders and all participants in events organized and/or sanctioned by World Skate as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate, shall abide by and ensure respect of these Codes.

1. Dignity and Equality

- I. Safeguarding and maintaining the dignity of any individual participating in World Skate competitions and/or events is a fundamental requirement of the sporting movement.
- II. Any form of discrimination on the basis of race, gender, ethnic origin, religion, philosophical or political opinion, marital status, sexual orientation or any grounds other than merit and performance will not be tolerated.
- III. All forms of harassment whether physical, professional, psychological or sexual are prohibited.
- IV. Acknowledging the danger to sports integrity from the manipulation of sports competitions, World Skate restates its commitment to safeguarding the integrity of sport, including the protection of clean athletes and competitions as stated in the Olympic Agenda.

Due to the complex nature of this threat, World Skate recognizes that it cannot tackle this threat alone, and hence cooperation with public authorities, in particular law enforcement and sports betting entities, is crucial.

World Skate declares its commitment to support the integrity of sport and fight against the manipulation of competitions by adhering to the standards set out in the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions, requiring its members to do likewise.

- V. Sports Betting, Bet or Betting means any wager of a stake of monetary value in the expectation of a prize of monetary value, subject to a future and uncertain occurrence related to a Sports competition.
- VI. All forms of participation in and promotion of betting related to World Skate-sanctioned events are strictly prohibited to all athletes, officials, World Skate Management and Staff members as well as to any other person, entity or body anyway dealing with World Skate.
- VII. Subject to the right of appeal, World Skate shall recognize and respect any decision taken by any other Sporting Organization in compliance with the Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions.
- VIII. Participants in World Skate events and/or competitions as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall not, in any manner whatsoever, infringe the principle of Fair Play, behave in an unsporting manner, or attempt to influence the course or result of a competition, or any part thereof, in a manner contrary to sporting ethics.
- IX. Participants in World Skate events and/or competitions as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate, shall uphold the good name of World Skate and shall use due care and diligence in fulfilling their mission.

2. Integrity

- I. Participants in World Skate events and/or competitions as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall act in accordance with the highest standards of integrity. When representing World Skate, they shall be impartial and refrain from defending the specific interests of their own country or sport.
- II. World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, accept or offer any form of remuneration or commission, nor any concealed benefit or service of any nature, connected with the award or organization of World Skate events.
- III. Only gifts of nominal value, in accordance with prevailing local customs, can be accepted by World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate, as a mark of respect or friendship. Any other gift must be passed on to the organization of which the beneficiary is a member or which the beneficiary is representing at that moment.
- IV. World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall observe all local diplomatic conventions as are necessary for politeness and can only accept hospitality (accommodation, meals, entertainment etc.) as can reasonably be seen to be necessary for the comfortable accomplishment of their duties and the creation of a good working atmosphere with partners. Any offers of excessively lavish hospitality shall be reported immediately to the Executive Board.

- V. Doping is strictly prohibited. The provisions against doping in the current WADA Code, International Standards, World Skate Anti-Doping Rules and in any other applicable Anti-Doping Rule, shall be completely observed and duly executed.
- VI. World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall refrain from involvement with firms or persons whose activity or reputation is inconsistent with the principles set out in the present Code.
- VII. World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall observe the general ethics and integrity principles necessary to cover a public office. Nonetheless, they cannot be chosen amongst those who have received a final conviction sentence for severe criminal offences, such as pedophilia, bribery, felony murder, sexual harassment or abuse, drug dealing etc.

Should a World Skate appointed or elected Officer/Member be sentenced (with a final binding ruling/sentence) for such (or similar criminal offences) during their term of office, such person shall be deemed removed from office with immediate effect.

3. Conflict of interest policy

Elected and/or appointed World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate and provided with decision-making power, shall respect the following rules concerning conflict of Interests:

- I. Definition: A “possible conflict of interest” is any situation in which a person’s and/or an entity’s judgments or decisions on matters affecting World Skate might be influenced by relations that person and/or entity has (or is on the point of having) with other persons or organizations that might be affected (positively or negatively) by their judgments or decisions.
- II. The conflict of interests becomes “real” when the person and/or entity concerned, after becoming aware of the potential conflict, fails to disclose it, participates in the relevant decision-making process, expresses an opinion or makes a decision in favor of, or against, the person and/or entity concerned, or accepts any benefit from that person and/or entity or from persons and/or entities anyway connected to them.
- III. Conflicts of interests may arise as a result of direct personal relations, or indirectly, through the interests of a closely related third person (parent, spouse, partner, dependent etc.).
- IV. Types of Interest: Typical circumstances in which conflicts of interest arise are involvement with suppliers, sponsors, professional advisers, event organizers and contracting parties (shareholdings, payments, hospitality, gifts or other benefits).
- V. Disclosures: All those to whom these rules apply must refrain from giving their opinions, making decisions or accepting benefits, and must make a declaration of interest.

This can be made in one of two ways:

- A public statement during the World Skate Executive Board meetings.
- A written disclosure to the World Skate Executive Board. The information given shall be kept confidential if requested.

VI. Treatment of Disclosures: The World Skate Executive Board will take the necessary decisions. The options can include, but are not limited to:

- Taking note of the disclosure without further action;
- Removing the person and/or entity concerned from part or all of the action or decision-making opportunities that create the potential for conflict;
- Eliminating the person's and/or the entity's involvement in the external interest causing the conflict.

VII. Penalties: Failure to disclose potential conflicts of interest leads to the opening of an investigation as per the Rules set out in these Codes and in the By-Laws.

VIII. Prevention: While setting out the Agenda of World Skate Meetings, "Declaration of Conflicts of Interest" might be included as a standing item of the Agenda, in order to provide a formal opportunity to elected and/or appointed World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate provided with decision-making power, to make disclosures of potential conflicts of interest.

4. Good governance principles

The basic universal principles of good governance of the sports movement, in particular transparency, responsibility, accountability and sustainability must be respected.

I. TRANSPARENCY

Transparency is one of the most valuable principles inspiring the entire activity of World Skate.

To this end, World Skate shall make every endeavor to ensure transparency of information to all its Member Federations and to the general public.

In this regard, World Skate shall publish on its official website - and in the most accessible manner possible - all the resolutions or decisions by its decision-making bodies, as well as any other relevant information.

II. ACCOUNTABILITY

The World Skate Executive Board shall ensure to all Member Federations as well as any other person, body or entity anyway interacting with World Skate that the Federation is run in a fair and balanced way.

In this regard, the income and expenditure of World Skate shall be recorded in its accounts, which must be maintained in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

An independent auditor or an auditing firm shall check these accounts (Statutes Art. 18).

Independent Auditors can also be appointed to check and evaluate World Skate management procedures.

III. RESPONSIBILITY

World Skate decision-making bodies or officers shall fulfill their tasks as well as any other obligation assigned to them with responsibility and respecting their roles and all World Skate Rules and Regulations.

World Skate recognizes the significant contribution that broadcasters, sponsors, partners and other supporters of sports events make to the development and prestige of World Skate events and/or competitions throughout the world. However, such support must be compliant with the rules of sport and the principles set out in World Skate Rules and Regulations, and shall not interfere with the running of sports.

IV. SUSTAINABILITY

World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall at all times act as stewards of the environment, having in mind their duty to conserve and preserve the natural World for future generations. At all World Skate competitions and/or events, they shall minimize the use of non-renewable resources and apply the highest standards of environmental protection, including provision for recycling of all used materials.

5. Confidentiality

- I. World Skate, World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall not disclose information entrusted to them in confidence.
- II. Disclosure of other information shall not be for personal gain or benefit, nor be undertaken maliciously to damage the reputation of any person and/or entity.

6. Implementation

- I. World Skate shall do whatever is reasonably required to ensure that the principles, Rules and Regulations of World Skate are applied.

- II. World Skate Officers, Executive Board, Management and Staff members as well as any other person and/or entity dealing with World Skate shall inform the World Skate DELA Department of any breach of these Codes, with a view to an investigation and possibly subject to sanctions to be imposed in accordance with the World Skate Statutes, By-Laws and applicable regulations.
- III. No person and/or entity reporting in good faith an alleged violation of these Codes or cooperating in an investigation shall be subject to retaliation, threats, intimidation or adverse consequences for such reporting or cooperation. Any act of retaliation may constitute a separate violation of these Codes.
- IV. Any breach and/or violation of these Codes, whether caused by omission, commission or negligence, may lead to sanctions.
- V. Persons and/or entities subject to these Codes who knowingly assist or are otherwise complicit in any act or omission that constitutes or culminates in a breach of the Codes might also be held accountable on the basis of the Codes
