

16 January, 2023

Maxim Kruglov, Russian skateboarding athlete, receives an additional 1-year sanction from Russian Anti-Doping Agency (RUSADA).

The athlete, while serving a 4-year disqualification sentence, acted contrary to the WADA Code, WSK Anti-doping Rules and RUSADA Anti-doping Rules, by participating in a sports competition during his period of ineligibility. For this reason, RUSADA has sanctioned the athlete with another year of disqualification starting from February 7, 2023, when his original period of ineligibility would have ended, until February 6, 2024.

Sincerely
