COACHES REGISTRATION

This year, there will be lessons for World Skate Coaches Level 1 and 2 only.

Level 1: National Federations are allowed to register an unlimited number of coaches but only 5 (five) of them will officially start the process as World Skate Coach.

On the registration website, the National Federations will have the option to indicate who are their 5 selected coaches that will officially start the process.

Level 2: National Federations are allowed to register an unlimited number of coaches but only the 5 (five) coaches who already have the Certificate of Level 1 will officially continue the process as World Skate Coach.

It remains up to the Inline Speed Skating Technical Commission to refuse any of the coaches proposed by the National Federation to start the official process.

Attendees must contact their National Federation of belonging to participate in the Online Course. The registration process will open on January 26, 2022 and you will be able to access the registration web page here.

GENERAL SCHEDULE

The training period for the Coaches Level 1 and Level 2 programs is:
26 February - 26 March 2022.

Coaches will have the opportunity to choose between two different lessons times according to their preferred time zone and language.

All the lessons will be pre-recorded and shared live: the participants will be able to ask questions during the lessons, the questions will be sent to the speaker and the answers will be sent back to each participant within 2 working days.

At the end of each program, for both levels, an Assessment will be required. More information concerning the evaluations will come soon.

You can download the schedule of the lessons below:
